Whereas, on motion, a Committee has been appointed by the South Carolina Conference, looking to the acceptance and endorsement, as a Conference Institution, of the Williamston Female College, a property owned and controlled by a Joint Stock Company, composed largely of gentlemen not members of the Methodist Church; and, whereas, such endorsement will and must tend to the diminution of the patronage of the Conference Institution, for years burdened by a heavy debt, which is now being gradually reduced; and, whereas, said Conference College will be severely crippled, if not entirely destroyed, by such action; therefore,

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees, whom you have put in charge of the Columbia Female College, feel bound to enter their solemn protest against the proposed action.

Board of Trustees.

The report of the Committee on Bible Cause was read by W. T. Capers, and was adopted. (See Reports.)

W. C. Power presented the report of Committee on the Williamston

Female College matter as follows:

The Committee appointed by this Body to ascertain on what terms, if any, the control of Williamston Female College may be secured to the South Carolina Conference, respectfully submit the following formulated proposition:

The College to be under the management of a Joint Board of Control, to consist of nine Directors. to be chosen by the Stockholders, and eighteen Trustees, to be appointed by the Conference; the Directors, however, to have sole control of its financial affairs.

The College to furnish literary tuition and text books free of charge, and tuition in music and art at half rates, to as many daughters of clerical members of the Conference as it can accommodate, so long as they pay their other expenses promptly, and conduct themselves as orderly, studious pupils.

This arrangement to remain in force as long as the Conference may desire to continue it.

The following facts were elicited

1. From two-thirds to three-fourths of the stock belongs to the members of the Methodist Church.

2. The present management is under contract with the corporators for three years, to 1st January, 1893.

(Signed)

J. A. CLIFTON, W. C. POWER, A. J. CAUTHEN.

W. D. Kirkland moved that the proposition be referred to a special Committee of Five, to report at the next session of this Conference.

Thomas Raysor moved, as a substitute, that the proposition be now accepted. After a protracted debate, a motion for the previous question was made and prevailed.

The substitute was submitted and lost. The motion of W. D. Kirkland then came up and was lost by a vote of 29 against 86.

Harris C. Bethea asked a location, which was granted.

The business of the Conference having been finished, the Minutes of this morning's session were read and adopted.

The Bishop addressed the Conference, and announced the Appointments for 1890. (See Appointments.)

Conference adjourned sine die, with the doxology, and the benediction by the Bishop.

V. REPORTS.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The education of the people is recognized among all progressive nations as a prime condition of social advancement, political safety, and material development. As such, it receives the earnest support of the leading statesmen, the best equipped scientists and the philanthropists of the world. Even nations whose treasuries are almost bankrupt with the accumulated debt of centuries of war and misrule, are straining their resources to make large appropriations for this essential feature of modern civilization.

We conclude from these facts that educated intellect will dominate the future civilization to an extent far beyond example in the world's history. And when we think of the possibility that this mighty movement may be controlled and shaped by atheistic, agnostic, or even by rationalistic influences, we are filled with alarm. The consequences of such a state of things would be disastrous beyond expression; and, the only organization capable of preventing such a catastrophe, is the Church. Hence, the Church everywhere, in Romish and in Protestant lands, has felt itself constrained by the inevitable logic of its providential surroundings, to devote a large portion of its talent, time and treasure to developing and propagating a distinctly Christian influence upon the great educational movement of our time.

Thus the times in which we live call for an ever increasing interest in, and devotion to, this great work, and we rejoice to believe that our people are awaking to a clearer realization of duty in this matter.

Reviewing the educational work of our Conference during the year, we find much to encourage us.

Wofford College

Reports that it is enjoying the most prosperous year of its history, having enrolled 107 names upon its College classes, and 88 pupils being in attendance upon the Fitting School. The collections for tuition have been better than any previous year. The Financial Agent, Rev. John C. Kilgo, has shown great energy and marked ability in laboring among the Churches to secure a sufficient endowment; and his success hitherto demonstrates that, with the united support of preachers and people, his great enterprise is sure of accomplishment in the near future. He has visited 45 Churches and obtained in cash, subscriptions and notes, $21,000. The College needs $1,500 for furniture and school-room apparatus. It would also be much benefitted by the purchase of another boarding hall, a suitable one being offered us for only $1,500. The economical boarding system, as arranged in Wightman and Alumni Halls, has proven a complete success, especially in the active and earnest piety maintained by the young men there. The District and Circuit Beards of Education projected at our last Conference have been duly organized and are working well. We look for very effective aid from this source, when all the Districts shall be represented by candidates for the ministry, under the care of the Church.

Columbia Female College.

The scholastic year, which closed last June, was one of marked prosperity. One hundred and twenty-seven pupils were matriculated, of whom 84 were boarding pupils. All but four or five pupils were members of the Church. A healthful and gratifying moral and religious tone pervaded the College during the entire year. The literary work of the College was equally gratifying. The daily recitations and the annual and semi-annual examinations gave evidence of diligent study.

The receipts of the year were sufficient to cover all the current expenses and appropriate one thousand dollars to the reduction of the bonded debt. The building and grounds are in good condition, and the whole Institution is neatly and comfertably furnished.

The College has been doing a great and good work for the Church and deserves the sympathy and support of all our ministers and members. The patronage now is not as large as at the close of the last scholastic year, and your Board begs leave to urge upon the Conference the importance of more earnest work in behalf of this invaluable Institution.

Cokesbury Conference School.

This School has enrolled about sixty pupils during the year. Its course of study prepares boys and girls for college, or the practical pursuits of business life. Mr. C. C. Reed has been re-elected Principal for the ensuing year.

Paine Institute.

Situated in the city of Augusta. Ga., presided over by a member of our own Conference, Rev. George Williams Walker, is doing a good and much needed work in supplying soundly trained preachers and teachers for the colored people. We recommend that the amount asked for its support, $350.00, be divided among the Presiding Elders, and that they be requested to endeavor to raise the same by whatever method may commend itself to their several judgments.

Appointments.

We recommend that the Rev. E. T. Hodges be appointed on Committee of Examination for Class of first year, in place of Rev. J. M. Pike, transferred; and Rev. W. R. Richardson to fill vacancy on the Board of Education, caused by same transfer.

Resolved, That an assessment of $4,000 be laid upon the Conference for the support of Wofford College during the ensuing year.

We request the Bishop to appoint Rev. Samuel Lander to the Presidency of Williamston Female College; Rev. A. Coke Smith, Professor in Wofford College; Rev. John C. Kilgo, Financial Agent for Wofford College; Rev. O. A. Darby, President Columbia Female College; Rev. Geo. W. Walker, President Paine Institute.

S. B. JONES, President.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

The Bible is the Word of God in the words of men. It is God's Word to all mankind. It alone answers the questions that alike interest the philosopher and the little child. It shows us the Father in the countenance of the Son of Man. It teaches us how to live and how to die. It is the oracle of the legislator, the charter of human rights, the guide-book of human ignorance, the consoler of the broken-hearted, "the day-spring from on high."

Without it the pulpit is powerless, and personal piety an impossibility or a dream. And yet how many homes in South Carolina are without it; and sad to say how many people seldom read and study it.

The Committee offers the following Resolutions:

1. That never has it been more imperatively the duty of the ministry to urge the membership to read the Bible prayerfully every day, and to insist that this is indispensable to growth in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2. That every Pastor, early in the year, carefully prepare and preach a sermon on this subject and raise a collection for the cause.

3. That we recommend the Pastors to correspond with Rev. T. H. Law, Agent of the A. B. S., Spartanburg, S. C., with a view to supplying all the families with Bibles.

W. T. CAPERS, for Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Your Committee on Publication of The Southern Christian Advocate respectfully submits the following report: Our Conference organ is closing probably the most prosperous year in its history. While its circulation last year was much larger than the year preceding, it is still larger this year than it was last. The record made by its Editor the first year that he took charge of its columns was a good one, and he has succeeded in improving that record each successive year down to the present time.

Your Committee would also express its entire satisfaction with the manner in which Mr. C. A. Calvo, Jr., the Publisher, has been carrying out his part of the contract. Indeed, in more instances than one, he has done better by the Conference than his contract called for.

We note with pleasure the further fact that the agents of the paper, the brethren of our Conference, are fulfilling their part of the agreement in a manner more business-like and commendable than formerly. So marked has been this improvement, that, with a circulation of about five thousand last year, the books of the Publisher, at the close of the Conference, lacked only $165.57 of presenting a balanced account, and this small arrearage the brethren have been paying in the present year. This statement indicates a state of things which the Publishing Committee, no less than the Publisher himself contemplate with year great estic featier.

lisher himself, contemplate with very great satisfaction.

Your Committee has audited the royalty account, as in former years and finds everything correct, the receipts and expenditures being properly vouched. We also note that the contract under which the paper is now being published will expire with the year 1890, and we would respectfully submit the following recommendation, to wit:

1. That we heartily endorse and support our Conference organ, and endeavor to increase its circulation yet more and more.

2. That at the close of this his quadrennium of service, we do hereby express our appreciation of the work accomplished and the success attained by our editor, Rev. W. D. Kirkland, D. D., in this delicate and difficult department of Church work.

3. That authority be given at this session of the Conference to renew the present contract, or make such arrangements as may be deemed expedient for the further publication of the paper.

R. D. SMART, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

The Committee on Minutes beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the Publishers of the Minutes of last year, and find them correct.

Our Treasurer's report is as follows: Received from the Charges$413 28 Less balance due Publishers of last year.....

$413 09

The Committee nominate H. F. Chreitzberg and H. B. Browne to edit and publish the Minutes of this Conference; and recommend that four thousand (4,000) copies be published.

The Committee recommend that an assessment of five hundred and fifty dollars ($550) be made for the publication of the Minutes of next year.

The Committee hereby express their appreciation of the excellent manner in which the Editors and Publishers of the Minutes of last year performed their work.

The Committee recommend that the Publishers of the Minutes be instructed to prepare and distribute blanks suitable for making reports from the Charges in accordance with the action of the Annual Conference last year.

H. B. BROWNE, Chairman.

J. C. CHANDLER, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee appointed to consider that vital issue, so long under the advisement of great ecclesiastical bodies, and to-day claiming no small part of the attention of the political world, after mature deliberation, has arrived at the following conclusions:

The history of the world amply demonstrates the fact that all great revolutions, so far at least as the producing causes are involved, are of slow growth. It is therefore a utopian dream to expect to eradicate in a day that which has prevailed for centuries. Great and powerful sentiments develop gradually. They are not born in a moment. Therefore we believe that in God's own appointed time universal prohibition will predominate, and that the whiskey traffic, which has destroyed its millions, will be forever exterminated, and that future generations will one day look back upon this evil of their fathers as one of the grosser crimes of a darker and less Christian age.

Therefore, we believe it to be the duty of the Church to harvest every opportunity that a gracious Providence may present to it to increase this sentiment, now, we trust, in its infancy, that anticipates that happy day when both the manufacture and use as a beverage of intoxicants shall be driven not only from the land which we love and call our own, but from the face of the earth.

While we are supremely thankful that the issue before us is fast becoming a great political question, we do not conceive that this or any other ecclesiastical body has the prerogative to intermeddle with political issues, pure as such, for we are commanded to "subject ourselves to the powers that exist." Therefore it is not within our province to declare for prohibition, politically considered. Yet while this is true, the subject is also a moral one, and we as individuals and as a Church are bound, by the highest moral obligations conceivable, not to aid, encourage or in any way abet, by precept or example, that which is wrong, otherwise we become equally as guilty in the eyes of Divine law as the immediate transgressor. But a mere negative position on our part relative to this great issue will not relieve us of the responsibility that God has placed upon us as pertaining to the use, the sale and the manufacture of ardent spirits. It is therefore justly demanded of all Christian men and women that they positively teach both by precept and example that such traffic, use and manufacture are gross violations of God's will as revealed to us in the Holy Bible.

Therefore we are morally bound, severally and singularly, to diligently

Therefore we are morally bound, severally and singularly, to diligently teach the children of the Church their duty and obligations relative to the virtue of temperance in its modern acceptation, feeling assured that when we have thus discharged our duty, that we have done the will of our Heavenly Father; and that we have sown good seed which will ultimately produce, under God's guiding hand, a gracious and bountiful harvest. Thus, as the history of past achievements teach us, all great moral revolutions have been accomplished. The Church, following the example of its Supreme and infallible Head, has sown the seed, and governments and empires have participated in the glorious reaping. We are to plant day by day; we must water continually that which has been planted by our prayers and sympathies, and it may be with our tears, and God will give

But our field is broader than that constituted by the children of the Church, or even by the sum total of the constituents of the entire Church of Christ. We must catch the spirit of our illustrious and immortal founder, John Wesley, and with him we must come to the full realization of the fact that in this as well as other Christian duties, "the world is our parish." We are morally bound by the Word of God to proclaim from every pulpit the gospel of temperance, not only to the people of God, but to the poor inebriate, bound hand and foot by the fetters of cruel, unrelenting habit, and tortured by the Promethean fires of an acquired and depraved appetite. We should never forget that the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ is powerful enough to save drunkards from the power and dominion of the drink Therefore,

Resolved, That we as a branch of the Christian Church are fully committed to the cause of temperance, to work, by all legitimate means, for its advancement and final triumph in the land that gave us birth, and in a world bought by the precious blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. For then, and only then, will the King of Kings and Lord of Lords have dominion

"from the rivers to the ends of the world."

J. W. DANIEL, Chairman.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

One of the remarkable features of the closing years of this century is the multiplicity of books and periodicals. The land is flooded with books, magazines and papers.

Some of these are very immoral. Their tendency is to poison all purity. For the young to read them is to run fearful risks. Their publishers use great ingenuity to get them into the hands of the youth of our land.

There is another class which is not immoral, but through which runs a deistical current. In elegant language, pure diction, and entertaining story-telling, an effort is made to undermine the foundation of Christianity.

There is still another class, known as the higher criticism, whose so-called advanced thinkers would rob the Bible of much of its inspiration. Their object seems to be to reduce the Word of God to a mass of tales and legends, in which a few truths can be discovered. These classes of literature are most dangerous. The style and subjects make them attractive. They are published in cheap form. The effect of this reading is widely manifested.

It is the duty of the Church to stem this current by sending forth literature of a pure and high character-literature that will be attractive and entertaining, and that will win the attention of the reading public. No mathematical calculation can tell the benefit of this kind of literature.

Our Publishing House has done a good work in this direction. The effects are widely seen in the Church and in the world. The books and papers have touched millions, and have been to them a lasting benediction.

It is with pleasure that we report that our Publishing House continues to prosper. The sales have been larger than usual. Some excellent books have been sent forth. Among these books, special attention is called to Summers's Systematic Theology, Peterson's Revision of the Discipline, and several works of equal importance. These books are having a fine sale, and their circulation is doing good. The revised Hymnal of the M. E. Church, South, has been published. It will compare favorably with any Hymnal of any Christian Church. Every preacher should introduce it as soon as possible into all our congregations.

We are pained to know that the Review is not paying expenses. The standard it maintains is very high.

The Sunday School literature is equal to that of any, and superior to that of many of the Christian Churches. The circulation is now about one million copies.

"The Graded Sunday School Libraries, of which there are eleven, are having an extensive sale, and are giving general satisfaction." The Church hopes that the graded system of catechisms will soon be published. They are sorely needed.

We would urge our preachers to patronize our House, buy the books, circulate its periodicals, and try to advance all its interests.

This report would be incomplete if attention was not called to the Southern Christian Advocate. Under the editorial management of W. D. Kirkland, D. D., it continues to take high rank among the religious periodicals of the South. The paper deserves our earnest support. It is very near an ideal paper. A strenuous effort should be made to place it in the homes of all the Methodist people of the State.

J. THOS. PATE, Chairman. A. A. GILBERT, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Sunday school work is now a broad term; for the modern Sunday school, if moving with the Church of Christ, is alive to questions embracing a knowledge of God's Word, its history and doctrines, and an earnest effort to lead to the experience of God's saving power through Christ Jesus and the agency of the Holy Spirit. It is glowing with missionary zeal. It is operating on a smaller scale, indeed, but operating none the less on the main lines of Church work.

In order to procure data upon which to base an intelligent report, the Board issued a circular and sent one to each Pastor. Had all of the brethren responded to the questions therein, we could have given the Conference a very accurate statement. As it is, sixty charges have reported, and, as they embrace every grade of circuits, stations and missions, we can arrive at a very safe average for our conclusions. Seventy per cent. report an increase in attendance, amounting to about fourteen hundred. Seventy-six per cent. report schools as open the entire year. In answer to the question: Are your teachers earnest Christians? Thirty-three per cent. answered affirmatively, but a very large proportion report them as only generally so. There is food for serious thought here. If our teachers are not Christians, then their lives and examples are dangerous, whatever their moral standard may be.

These sixty Pastors report that about nine hundred have joined the Church from the Sunday school. Thirty-three per cent. report Bible reading general among the children. Thirty per cent. answer that it is not. The remainder did not reply. Is the Bible the religion of Protestants? Then this showing is fearful. We are forced to inquire, do the parents read it? Let the ministry take notes for sermons here; and let the laity plan for a needed reform. With the Bible so cheap as to be in reach of all, every child should have a copy, and be encouraged in reading it and studying it.

Children's Day was observed by sixty-six per cent. of the Sunday schools.

Seventy per cent. report missionary societies among the children. Methodism is missionary in root and branch. Union with Christ means sympathy with this cause for which He died. This should be made intelligible to the young, and the best way in which it can be done is to organize Sunday schools with missionary societies in accordance with the action of the last General Conference.

We want liberality; but we want more: we want intelligent Christian liberality. Begin with the children, and they will be prepared for Christian manhood and womanhood in the Church of Christ.

We gladly put it on record that eighty per cent. of our Pastors have held special services for them. Let them be taught by their Pastors, and, let us add, let them be taught now, in the doctrines and polity of the Methodist Church. That Church is wise which indoctrinates its own children.
Infidels do not grow in that field.

The offerings made on Children's Day, aggregated four hundred and thirty-seven dollars and six cents. The individual charges and amounts are on file. We report by Districts, as follows:

Notwithstanding the efforts made by the Board to advertise this fund, it has not been patronized as it should have been. It is intended to aid needy schools in procuring Sunday school papers, magazines, &c., and such libraries as may be deemed necessary. We call your attention to the crying need for books to offset the dime novel, by stimulating thought and turning the thought to God. Applications may be made to the President of the Board, who, with his advising committee, will cheerfully consider any application which comes signed by the Preacher in Charge, the Presiding Elder concurring.

We beg leave to ask the consideration of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we will endeavor to make our Sunday school work deeply spiritual, looking directly to the salvation of the young; will try to secure for teachers earnest Christians, and will train the children in the doctrines, history and usages of Methodism.

2. That we will earnestly strive to impress upon them the importance of reading and studying the Bible

3. That we will work to train them in Christian liberality, and give them intelligent views of the nature of the various enterprises of our Church, and to this end will use all practical occasions, especially Children's Day.

Signed for the Board,

W. A. ROGERS, President,

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee to whom was referred the District Conference Journals beg leave to report that the Journals have been examined. We have been ready to find in them what is worthy of commendation as well as that open to adverse criticism. We have not been surprised that we have not found them perfect. We have been pleased to find them, in almost every instance, so nearly faultless. We think this annual review is having a happy effect.

Charleston District.

This Journal is very well kept. A feature worthy of special mention is the list of successive Conferences held, with names of Presidents, Secretaries, places and dates at the first of the Journal.

Florence District.

In the main this Journal has been well kept. It is somewhat marred by frequent erasures and interlineations.

Columbia District.

This record is pretty well kept.

Cokesbury District.

This record is remarkably well kept. We note particularly the good handwriting, uniform neatness and side column index, the latter affording great facility in finding different items of the record. We have only praise for this model Journal.

Greenville District.

This record is well written and neatly kept. We suggest that the letters "P. C." denoting "preachers in charge," should follow the names of Pastors when they appear as such.

Sumter District.

This Journal is beautifully kept.

Marion District.

With a few trifling exceptions, we note no errors in this Journal. It has been well kept. "S. C. Advocate" and "Southern Advocate," we suggest, should not designate our Southern Christian Advocate.

Orangeburg District.

This District has made quite a new departure in having its Minutes printed in neat pamphlet form for general distribution. We are sorry we cannot commend the written, as we might the printed, record. Quite a number of words are misspelled; improper abbreviations are used; neither name of Church nor Annual Conference is given. There are patent indications of haste and carelessness in the work.

Spartanburg District.

In the main this Journal has been well kept. There are some errors however. We have "session convened," on page 1, for "Conference convened;" the session is numbered in one place "twenty-second," and in another "twenty-third." There are several interlineations; some names are misspelled, and wrong initials given. There are indications of hasty work here also.

Chester District.

This Journal has been neatly kept, the only criticism we offer being the lack of uniformity in the page headings.

We would specially commend the record books of the Charleston and Greenville Districts. This handsome, durable work is from the House of the Walker, Evans & Cogswell Company. We do not think the little book furnished by our Nashville House at all suitable for such records as these. We respectfully urge our Publishing House to give us a larger and more substantial record book.

We submit also the following resolution: That when written up, these Journals of the various districts be deposited by the Presiding Elders in the archives of the Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted.

J. L. STOKES, for the Committee.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension take pleasure in reporting, from year to year, an increase in the receipts for Church Extension. The Board return thanks to the brethren of the Conference for the prompt and business-like manner in making their returns. Only a few charges are yet to be heard from. The Treasurer has received up to this time $2,231.56, less postage and expenses of Secretary's office $3.56, leaving net $2,228.00; of this sum, one-half goes to the Parent Board, leaving $1,114.00 to be donated to the following Churches in the bounds of this Conference, viz:

Of the sixteen applications presented to the Board, the majority were found imperfect, and cannot be paid until the papers are perfected. Our Secretary, J. G. Clinkscales, Columbia, S. C., will furnish blanks with necessary instructions for those making application for aid.

28 MINUTES OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND FOURTH SESSION, A communication was received by the Board from Dr. David Morton, Secretary of the General Board of Church Extension, asking that increased efforts be made in raising funds for Church Extension, as there is an urgent demand for money to aid in building churches in destitute places. This Board heartily commends Dr. Morton's request to the members of the South Carolina Conference. Respectfully submitted.

GEO. W. WILLIAMS, Treasurer. A. J. STAFFORD, Acting Secretary. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS-1889. Another year of toil and hardship has passed with our missionaries of the South Carolina Conference. The reports have come in from the field, and have been passed in review before the Board. The following is but a brief sketch and summary of what has been accomplished. The best part of the year's experience and achievement cannot be put upon paper. No record is possible here; but, thank God! the record is on high, and the rewards are sure. There no wrestling supplication, no heaviness of heart, no fast-falling tear shall be overlooked or unrequited. There are at present ten missions under the care of the Board, viz.: Cumberland, (Charleston), Upper Edisto, Columbia City Mission, Parksville, Spartanburg City Mission, Society Hill, Little Pee Dee, Pickens, Scranton, and Oconee. This, according to a resolution of the Board, designating each charge a "mission" where the appropriation exceeds the amount paid by the people to the support of their Pastor.

The reports from all of these charges showed faithful work done by the Pastors the past year. At but one has there not been success and progress. This is Little Pee Dee, where the Pastor, doing his best, has not been physically able to do the work efficiently. At several points the progress of the work has been particularly gratifying, for example, Cumberland, (Charleston), Columbia City Mission, Spartanburg City Mission, Parksville, Oconee, and Society Hill. Our city missions are all doing finely, and many of the waste places of the wilderness are blossoming as the rose. There were no new missions opened, and none discontinued There were also cheering reports from the charges aided by the Board. The general assurance was that we had made a good investment of the Lord's money. Some of these charges will not ask for any further aid. We thank God and take courage! W. D. KIRKLAND, President. J. L. STOKES, Secretary.

Report No. 5.

The Joint Board of Finance of the South Carolina Conference, having made inquiry into the condition of the claimants upon the Conference fund, would respectfully report that the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars will be required to meet the necessities of said claimants for the ensuing Conference year, and recommend an assessment of that amount.

CAMDEN, S, C., November 24, 1889.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED ON THE COMMUNICATION ADDRESSED TO THE CONFERENCE BY REV. WHITEFOORD SMITH,

The Conference received with pleasure the communication addressed to them by Rev. Whitefoord Smith, D. D., Emeritus Professor of Wofford College, and assure him of our sympathy in his affliction, and our fullest endorsement of the Scriptural views touching the observance of the Sabbath contained in his kindly letter to the Conference.

It is difficult for us prop rly to estimate the blessings of the Christian Sabbath, viewed as a natural gift of God to man. It reaches in its happy effects every portion of society, and millions of the sons of toil are set free. The counting rooms, the workshops, the fields, the markets, the marts of trade, the factories, the mines, and other industries, send forth their crowds to enjoy the freedom and blessings of the Sabbath, and tired men, women and children throw off life's burdens and breathe fresh vitality from the day of rest, while countless millions of dumb animals share the common rest and joy.

If the Sabbath did this only for our race, its blessings would be incal-culable, and it would be the duty of every Christian to use all effort to keep it in its integrity and purity. But this is the smallest of the good resulting from the observance of the Sabbath. Its religious blessings reach out farther than these in the quality and extent of their benefits.

Life is a journey, and our Sabbaths are way stations along the road we travel. The Sabbath does not end the journey, but brings us a week nearer home. Life's business in the week tends to draw us from God and make us carnal; the Sabbath calls us to remember the day, and with the day our responsibilities as immortal creatures. We are captives of earth for six days, and as prisoners we wear its chains and bear its burdens; but on the Sabbath we are summoned to the door to look out and up to our immortality, where there is an eternal Sabbath of rest and pleasure and duty of which this earthly Sabbath is but a faint adumbration.

In the observance of the Sabbath extreme austerity on the one hand and license on the other should be avoided; the one leading to a righteousness overmuch, and the other to a reckless disregard of the requirements of the day. How beautifully Christ steered the vessel, avoiding the superstitious idleness of the Jewish Pharisee on the one hand and the indulgence of the worldly, pleasure-taking Romanist on the other.

The Sabbath is "the Lord's Day;" the day set apart for God's work; the day for religious enterprise, labor and endeavor; the day in which it is not only lawful to do good, but the day which is set apart for this special pur-

The Sabbath is essential to the existence of the Church in purity and active service. It is one of the pillars upon which it rests, and just as the Sabbath is encroached upon, so the sauctity and activity of the Church is injured.

The avarice of the human heart is clearly discernable in the prostitution of the Sabbath by public conveyances, such as steamboats, railroads, &c. There are no grosser violations of the day, or more corrupting to public morals, than the customary Sabbath excursions by steamboats and railroads. How religious people can hold connection with these companies and pocket the avails of these Sabbath desecrations is beyond our ability to divine, and yet these companies are largely made up of members of the Church of God.

One of the most specious arguments for railroad Sabbath desecration is "the necessity to transport the mails." Where the necessity? Why should postmasters and other employees of the postal service not enjoy the immunities and blessings of the Sabbath as well as others? There is really no greater necessity existing in this branch of industrial enterprise than any other, and we plead and insist that the postal department of the nation nave the benefits of the Sabbath as other departments.

We are glad to know that the Postmaster-General of our government is attempting to grapple with this gigantic question, and we most earnestly desire and pray for his success.

We would also express our pleasure at the effort which is now being made by the "Law and Order League" of Charleston, to obtain signatures to a petition to the Legislature of this State for the better observance of the Sabbath, and regret that it has been received too late for us to secure signatures by the 26th instant, from our various congregations.
We present the following Preamble and Resolutions received from Dr.

Smith:

Whereas, the Sabbath was instituted by God, in the beginning of the world, and was ordained for the benefit of man, and is therefore of Divine obligation; and whereas, it has been recognized by the civil law of our country, and has been approved by the wisest statesmen as important to conserve the peace and security of our country; and whereas, the desecration of this day is a violation of the law, Divine and human, and is subversive of the public morals as well as of the general peace of society; and whereas, some of the steamboats and railroads of this State have of late perverted and prostituted this sacred day by running excursions thereon, and, by offering low rates of fare, have demoralized society and greatly offended the pious feelings of those who recognize the authority of God as well as the authority of the civil law, thereby weakening the safeguards of our institutions as well as offending the majesty of heaven; therefore,

1. Resolved. That this ('onference, representing a community of more than sixty thousand members in this State, has viewed with profound regret and pain this gross infraction of a law Divine and human.

2. Resolved. That we invoke all those who have control of our railroads, steamboats or other corporations, to use their influence and authority to suppress this profanation of the Lord's day.

3. Resolved. That we call upon those whose duty it is, and who are bound by their solemn oaths faithfully to administer the laws, to fulfill their duties in this respect, and protect the best interests of society against this fearful desecration of the Sabbath.

HENRY M. MOOD,
A. J. STOKES,
R. N. WELLS.

MEMOIRS.

REV. ABRAM PINCKNEY AVANT

Was born in Darlington County, S. C., December 2d, 1813, and died in Spartanburg, S. C., July 12, 1889. He joined the South Carolina Conference in 1844, and for more than forty years served the various fields to which he was appointed, with fidelity and zeal. He was a genial, sweet-spirited Christian, a firm friend, and an affectionate husband and father. Cheerfulness and gravity heartifully blended in father. Cheerfulness and gravity beautifully blended in his life, making him helpful as a pastor and successful as a preacher. Humility and mighty faith characterized this man of God. In prayer he seemed to mount right up to Heaven and talk with God as friend to friend. In a revival he was a power, and the Lord owned him in leading more than a thousand souls to Christ. For nearly half a century Abram P. Avant wore the white plume of a useful, holy life. What a record in a sentence!

His class-mate, Rev. John M. Carlisle, says of him: "He was my friend and I admired him, and trusted him was my brother in Christ, and I loved him. We joined the Conference together, and in 1848 traveled together on the Montgomery Circuit, N. C., and of course were thrown much together, and I always found him the affable companion, the perfect gentleman, the devout Christian, and the earnest preacher. He was popular as a man, and as a preacher—especially among 'the common people.' I have witnessed as great effects under his preaching and exhortations as under those of any one I ever knew. Indeed, taking into account his preaching ability, their effects were at times most astounding. The good man, the earnest Christian, the faithful and useful preacher is gone! I sorrow for his loss, but hope to meet him in heaven and renew the associations which to me were, on earth, so pleasant."

"Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." J. A. CLIFTON.

LEWIS MANNA LITTLE

Was born in Lincoln, afterwards Catawba County, North Carolina, July 12, 1815, and died in the city of Sumter, South Carolina, December 5, 1888, in the 74th year of his age.

The exact time when he was converted and joined the Church is unknown; but it was at the old Rock Springs camp ground, in Lincolnton County, where his father for many years tented. His conversion was deep and genuine; he never for a moment doubted it; but about three years after, he was graciously brought to feel that there were depths in Christian experience not yet sounded, sweets not yet tasted, and by faith sought and obtained the consciousness of complete consecration and perfect peace.

His license to preach was given by the Quarterly Conference of Lincolnton Circuit, December 7th, 1839, and bears the signature of William Crook, the Presiding Elder. He was a preacher, therefore, for forty-nine years, wanting only

His advancement to the different orders in the ministry was regular, having been ordained Deacon by Bishop Waugh, in 1842, at the close of his second year, and Elder by Bishop Soule two years later.

He closed his active ministry of forty-eight years, without a single break or turning aside to rest for even a year. 1888, only one year, he was on the non-effective list. He was not obliged long to take a retired place among the forces of his Lord and Master. Thus would be have had it if left to his own choice.

Lewis M. Little was a gentleman by instinct and culture, and utterly incapable of anything not comporting with such

As a Christian, he was thoroughly consecrated. All there was in him belonged entirely to the Lord, to be used as He might lead; and he walked in the light of His countenance. He always carried a bright, cheerful face, and no cloud could drive the sunshine from it. It was pathetic, during the last months of his life, to watch him as with emaciated, wasting form, he slowly moved among his friends, yet never without his accustomed smile, telling of his resignation and cheerfulness of spirit.

His was a life of supreme and restful trust in God. He came to its closing time without having laid away anything for the rainy day, yet was content, and to his faith and experience the rainy day never came.

He was a good, without being a great preacher, as weighed in the ordinary scales of greatness. His was very far from being a perfunctory ministry. He looked for results, and not applause. The burden of souls was upon his heart,—he preached as one that must give account, and was content if souls were led to the Saviour. His style was hortatory, always fervid,—his preaching was generally entertaining, and sometimes attended with great power. Many in the last day will rise up and call him blessed.

As a pastor, he was wise, sympathetic, tender, always ready with words of comfort for the sorrowing, and hope for the despairing.

Beautiful was his home life—patient, affectionate, thoughtful. His now bereaved wife tenderly loved and fully trusted him, his children were devoted and confiding.

His last year on earth must have been his happiest. Often was he in the "Beulah Land." His full soul would burst forth in songs of gladness and shouts of praise. His descent to the grave was gradual as the gathering shadows of evening, so gradual that those about him knew not when his feet first touched the icy waters of death. On Tuesday he gave directions concerning some business, heard with delight the news from the Conference, which had just closed, rejoiced in spirit when his much loved co-laborers of other days led in worship with him, and went to sleep his usual time that night.

The next morning he could not be aroused, the deep sleep of death was settling upon him. He slept quietly, peacefully, until two o'clock Wednesday, December 5th, when, without a gasp or a groan, he ceased to breathe, and his liberated spirit obeyed the summons to rest and home. Like Enoch he walked with God, and like him, as concerns any pains of death, simply was not, for God took him.

A good man and faithful preacher has gone to his reward. Earth is bereaved, Heaven is enriched.

J. S. BEASLEY.

REV. WILLIAM MARTIN

Was for sixty-one years a member of the South Carolina Conference. Born in Mecklenburg County, N. C., March 9, 1807. Licenced to preach 1827, admitted on trial 1828, and died in Columbia January 10, 1889. Of Covenanter descent his ancestors had stood with Knox and signed the solemn League and Covenant; no wonder there was a bent towards uprightness and all the incitements to a pure and noble life.

Trained to religious habits by a pious mother, who led regularly in family worship, he grew up a moral lad, when at the age of sixteen years he was converted to God, and at the age of twenty-one years entered upon that ministry which he laid down with his life sixty-one years afterward.

In the heavy travel of that early day, and being but poorly equipped for the work, no wonder discouragements beset him, and that often he was ready to faint. Prayer was his resource, and the Bible his daily counsellor. His few books graciously shut him up to its study and thus was he Divinely furnished for his work. In 1829 he traveled the Flint River Circuit, covering five Counties, requiring hundreds of miles of travel along Indian trails and overflowing streams. With his own hand did he assist in clearing the ground and erecting the first Methodist Church in Talbotton, Ga. occasionally visited the Asbury Mission among the Creek Indians, in Alabama. He served many years on Missions to the slaves, and while living in Columbia was instrumental in leading a Chinaman to Christ. Thus, of the five races of men, he had trophies from four.

He served during his life on Circuits, Stations and Districts, in agencies, and as president of the Columbia Female College. During the late civil war the sufferings of the soldiers engaged his deepest sympathies, for his oldest son had fallen as its first victim. He founded, in Columbia, the famous Wayside Hospital, where many a sick and wounded soldier was cared for. He was made Superintendent of the Central Bureau for relief of the soldiers, until Sherman burned the city. He made the first experiment in Carolina in preaching to the insane, as also to the deaf mutes at Cedar Springs, and called attention to the need of regular religious services for the convicts in the State Penitentiary. To this chaplaincy he was appointed in 1880, continuing in it to the time of his death.

As a preacher he was not eloquent in the usual acceptation of that word; he never tried to be. His preaching was expository, his style simple and fervent; his illustrations plain and pointed. "Jesus and Him Crucified" was the centre and soul of his theology.

In his last illness no cloud obscured his sky. 'A day or two before his death he opened his eyes and said: "O what a sweet season of peace! I have had such nearness to God. He has made my way clear and shining up to Him;" and, towards the close, whispering, "What wonderful calm!" passed without a struggle or fear into the presence of his Saviour.

A. COKE SMITH.

REV. ABRAHAM NETTLES

Died, November 6th, 1889, after an illness of ten days. He was born near Summerville, S. C., June 4th, 1808, joined the South Carolina Annual Conference at its forty-ninth session in Columbia, February, 1836. He leaves a wife and four grown children, three of whom reside in Clarendon County, and one in Texas. An older brother survives, and only a few weeks ago a sister died, aged eighty-seven years. Fifty-four years have passed since he connected himself with the South Carolina Conference embracing two years in the local ranks. For thirtyence, embracing two years in the local ranks. For thirty-nine years he was in the active work, but increasing debility, made it necessary for him to occupy a Superannuated relation for the last thirteen years of his life.

Though not educated in a technical sense, his logical mind was well trained. His special intellectual strength appeared in the force with which he conducted an argument.

He was master of Methodist theology and vindicated it through many a hard fought campaign. His mind was clear as a sun-beam, and his bow abode in strength. He never rambled or scattered in his discourses, but with a point in view he reached it, with the accuracy of an accomplished archer.

When he began his ministry, fifty-four years ago, Methodism in this State was weak, poor, misunderstood, and scattered. The South Carolina Conference embraced South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and a large part of North Carolina. There were few if any stations, and her circuits were large and laborious, many of them numbering from twentyfour to twenty-eight appointments. It needed just such a warrior to lead her hosts to battle and to victory. His was the mind, heart, and education for the times, and his success was marked.

In the home circle all looked to him as the principal. He was kind, tender, and loving.

The writer was often with him in his last illness. His faith was strong in God, and the nearer he approached the final crisis the more confiding, earnest, and confident were his words, and his last utterances were not those of the vanquished, but of the victor, and with his faith reposing in God, he fell asleep.

HENRY M. MOOD.

REV. JOHN EMORY WATSON

Was born in Laurens County, November 7th, 1838, and died at St. George's, Colleton County, June 11th, 1889. At the time of his death he was Principal of the St. George's "English and Classical Institute," and sustained a supernumerary relation to the Conference.

Bro. Watson was reared by deeply pious parents. They lived in the heroic days of Methodism; an age that developed spiritual muscle, and inspired great moral courage, devotion and sacrifice.

No wonder that young Watson—brought up under such influences, trained in such a school, breathing such a pure, religious atmosphere—was converted, and joined the Methodist Church at an early age, between eleven and twelve odist Church at an early age, between eleven and twelve. He was prepared for college at the historic Cokesbury Conference School, where his parents then resided. In 1858, he entered the Sophomore Class in Dickinson College, Carlisle, Penn. Here he won distinction, and received honors. After Abraham Lincoln was elected President of the United States, he returned home—for he was intensely Southern in his feelings—and entered Wofford College, and was graduated from that College with the Class of 1861. He was admitted into the South Carolina Conference, at its session held in Sumter, December 10th, 1863, Bishop Pierce presiding.

For twenty-seven years he was engaged in the active work of the Church as pastor, or teacher, on circuits and stations, in schools and colleges. Bro. Watson was a deeply consecrated man of God. The voice of duty was supreme with him, indeed, it was to him the call of God. He was ready for any service, or sacrifice, that looked to the advancement of the cause of truth and righteousness. He had, in common with his race, a full share of human nature; but the settled principle and controlling purpose of his life was to honor God and benefit his fellow-men. He walked literally in the light of the "golden rule." In social and official life, he was gentle, companionable, firm and dignified. As a preacher he was clear, instructive, and, at times, very powerful; but his best work was in the school-room. He had gifts and aptitudes for this work that few possess, the cultivation of which made him a great success. His was a checkered life; sometimes he felt. in his plans and work, that he was misunderstood by his brethren, and this gave him pain, but he never murmured or complained. He accepted his lot, hard or easy, as by Divine appointment, and "practically learned to suffer and be strong" He fell just where he desired to fall, at the post of duty; he "ceased at once to work and live." As the shadows of death gathered around him, he said: "Tell my brethren of the Conference, I die at my post, meet me in Heaven."

From the school-room he ascended to the courts on high—

From the school-room he ascended to the courts on high—and stands with the blood-washed throng in the presence of God. "His work is done and the workman is at rest."

THOS. RAYSOR,

REV. JOHN H. ZIMMERMAN

Was born in Abbeville County, S. C., March 15, 1816, and died in Westminster, S. C., March 24, 1889, in his 73d year.

His boyhood being uneventful, we introduce him where he commences to make history in connection with the Methodist Church. In 1832, at the age of sixteen, he joined the Church, and in 1833, at Asbury camp ground, in Cokesbury Circuit, he was converted. Going to Cokesbury in 1837 for the purpose of attending school, he soon became a leader in the students' prayer meeting, where, says Bishop McTyeire, who was there at the same time, "Zimmerman was in his glory." During the year, a gracious revival, that has become a matter of history both in the school and the town, occurred, and, under the blessing of God, its wonderful results are to be attributed largely to the earnest efforts of the subject of this paper.

Leaving Cokesbury in pursuit of a wider field in which to work for the Master, he knocked at the door of the South Carolina Conference. His record at Cokesbury was sufficient recommendation to that body, and January, 1838, he was admitted on trial. During his pastorate of 46 years he traveled 27 circuits and missions, and took the Superannuated relation at the close of 1883.

During these years he traveled some of the hardest and most laborious circuits that, in the days of his young manhood, constituted the fields of labor of an itinerant preacher. One year he traveled a large circuit "afoot," that his boys might have his horse to cultivate a small farm, the proceeds of which were necessary as a supplement to his salary to relieve him of sudden and unexpected financial embarrassment.

Amid all these toils and privations he reared a large family of children of intelligence, usefulness and respectability.

He was five years a Superannuate, but a man of such energy, determination and religion as he possessed found it hard to realize that the infirmities of age were upon him and to desist from active employment. During the week he often worked beyond his strength on his little farm; but Sunday morning he was among the first at the Church, whether for preaching or Sunday-school. Besides superintending the Sunday-school of his own Church he kept up two regular monthly appointments, one at the Methodist and the other, by invitation, at the Presbyterian Church, which was without a pastor; and, to both congregations, he preached with great acceptability. Notwithstanding his feebleness, frequently in his sermons and always in prayer, the fire of his youth would re-kindle, the vigor of his manhood re-assert itself and the Zimmerman of other days was before you exhorting sinners to repentance, or pleading for a baptism of the Holy Ghost upon the Church.

As a man, he had convictions and stood by them; as a preacher, he was methodical, orthodox and at times powerful. As a Methodist, he was loyal to the core. He loved his Church and subordinated everything to her claims upon him. As a husband and father he was devoted and kind, and no one was ever more diligent to provide for the necessities of his household. As a friend he was true and faithful. In fact, in every relation of life, faithfulness was a prominent trait of his character. And above all as a Christian, he enjoyed daily the conscious presence and power of the Holy Ghost, and exhibited in his life the saving grace of the Son of God.

His departure was triumphant, and he now wears the crown of a soldier and herald of the Cross.

He was buried in the Cemetery at Westminster, S. C., and his children have erected a handsome monument over his grave.

R. W. BARBER.

THE SPRING SESSION WILL OPEN FEBRUARY 5th, 1890.

THIS Institution for the higher education of Young Women is the only one in the State which is owned and controlled by the SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

It was opened for the reception of students in 1859, and for more than a quarter of a century it has been doing a noble work in giving a Christian education to the daughters of the Church and State.

Its curriculum is as extended, its grade of scholarship is as high, and its reputation is as fair as that of any similar Institution in the South. For these and other reasons, it is worthy of the confidence and support of the ministers and members of the Methodist Church, and of the general public.

As it has no endowment, and is not entitled to any part of the educational collection, it is entirely dependent upon the patronage it receives for support.

The building is elegant and well furnished. Its Teachers are accomplished and experienced. The domestic arrangements are excellent, and the deportment of the pupils unexceptionable.
